

Constitution Of Local 5221

Preamble

In order to better serve our patients, their families and our communities, we, the Registered Nurses and Licensed Practical Nurses of Fletcher Allen Health Care are organized as a union with The Vermont Federation of Nurses and Health Professionals, United Professions AFT Vermont, AFL-CIO to:

- Empower ourselves to advocate for our patients and our profession;
- Ensure safe staffing to meet our patients' physical, emotional and spiritual needs;
- Guarantee competitive wages, benefits and excellent working conditions for nurses in all clinical settings to improve retention and recruitment; and
- Foster an environment of professionalism and respect where nurses have a real voice in decision making.

Article I Name

This organization shall be known as the Vermont Federation of Nurses and Health Professionals, United Professions AFT Vermont, AFL-CIO, Local 5221, hereinafter, known as the Local.

Article II Objectives

The Vermont Federation of Nurses and Health Professionals will strive to:

- promote the improvement of quality health care,
- promote the interests of our members through organizing, member activism, representation and collective bargaining,
- improve the standards for our members by advancing economic status, encouraging and promoting continuing education and securing working conditions essential to the best performance of the services, and the most effective delivery of health care;
- ensure a democratic process and equality in our organization,

- promote participation in community health programs, health system agencies as well as any other regulatory body affecting the delivery of health care;
- influence legislation affecting the delivery of health care and the interests of the members of the Local,
- promote cooperative and collaborative relationships with labor organizations both regionally and nationally; and
- promote the civil and professional rights of all workers.

Article III Affiliations

This organization will maintain affiliation with the following organizations:

- the American Federation of Teachers (AFT);
- the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations ( AFL-CIO);
- the United Professions AFT Vermont, and
- the appropriate Central Labor Council(s) of the AFL-CIO.

This Constitution/ Bylaws shall be consistent with the Constitution of the AFT.

Article IV Membership

Section 1: Eligibility

- a) To be eligible for active membership an individual must be a bargaining unit member in good standing or on an approved leave of absence.

Membership in good standing shall constitute all of the following:

- Payments of all dues
- A signed membership card
- Adherence to this Constitution and Bylaws

- b) A member who leaves a bargaining unit for any reason except supervisory status, shall be eligible to continue membership by complying with Article IV Section 1(a) above. Only the active members in good standing may vote in bargaining unit business and run for elected office.
- c) Personnel with a primarily supervisory role shall not obtain membership. Members who are promoted to positions with the rank of supervisor are automatically removed from membership on the effective date of the promotion.

Section 2: Retirees

The Local will establish a retiree chapter. Membership in the chapter will be available to all Local members, current and past, who have retired and no longer work in the bargaining unit. The chapter will establish Bylaws to address officer structure, meetings and a formal program. Members of the retiree chapter will not be required to pay dues to the Local. Members of the retiree chapter will have the right to participate in the AFT benefit programs available to the general membership. Retirees are not active members and therefore shall not be eligible to run for office in Local Executive Board elections or participate in voting on Local business.

Article IV Membership (continued)

Section 3: Discipline of members

A member, including Officers and Executive Board members, may be disciplined by the organization for actions contrary to this Constitution or to the interests of the Local or its membership. The procedure exists in the Bylaws.
